McKEE ROAD BOOSTERS GET INTO ACTION

Meetings At Berea and Here Talk Plans and Committee Goes To Frankfort

A good highway to McKee, Jackson county, received a forward impetus at Berea Friday when delegations from Madison and Jackson counties talked over plans and methods of co-operation by which it is hoped to make certain the building of this roadway by 1924 at the latest. Much discussion was had of the cost of the road work, assistance of state-aid funds, and what funds must be raised by public subscription. Committees were named to meet in Richmond Saturday morning when further plans will be made and committees appointed to go to Frankfort Monday and take up the whole matter with the State Road Department.

The big thing is to secure enough money to take care of the small mileage that must be reconstructed in Madison county. Much of this is over very severe grades, as up Big Hill, Madison would have about two miles to build if this highway is built over Big Hill, and about four and a half miles of construction if the Scaffold Cane route is chosen. Both routes will be canvassed, and two surveys; after the survey is made, which would be this year, it is understood, the State Highway Commission would have to designate which route is to be reconstructed. It has been estimated that the cost to Madison county over the Big Hill route would be about $65,000 and the Scaffold Cane route $50,000.

These sums appear large if it is true, but when it is considered that Jackson county's cost for her part of the highway from the Madison county line on to McKee will be something like $397,000, it can readily be seen that Madison is being asked for only a very small portion of the cost of opening up a highway which will bring an immense volume of business right to her centers of trade. The estimates on the cost of the highway are said to be figured at about $18,500 for drainage and grading and about $8,500 for surfacing to the mile in Madison.

W. R. Reynolds, County Agent of Jackson county, explained the matter in full to the meeting at Berea, and urged that Madison do her part to meet Jackson county, which has already voted $125,000 bond issue and stands ready to go ahead the minute Madison says so.

Delegates were named from Berea to attend the meeting here Saturday, and included Messrs. Clark, Stephens, Gay, Welch, Dean, Hutchinson, Farmer, Strand, Flanery, Carrier, Abney, Spence, Chrisman, Scruggs, and Angel. A committee of five from Berea will go with the Jackson county delegation and a committee from the business men and Chamber of Commerce to Frankfort Monday to see the State Road Department.

The meeting was called to order at 10:15 by Mr. R. E. Turley, and presided over by Judge John Goodloe. After a short talk by Mr. Goodloe boosting the project and assuring the delegation from Jackson county, Berea and Richmond and the fiscal court to be behind the project wholeheartedly.

Mr. W. R. Reynolds, the county agent of Jackson, was introduced and he in turn explained the proposed road to McKee. He also stated that it would be necessary that a delegation should appear before the State Highway Commission at Frankfort on May 8, at 10 a. m.

The delegation from Jackson the season, score 7 to 0. Bat-C. T. Moore, Hon. W. M. Hurst, and J. R. Hays. The delegation from Berea is composed of Prof. F. O. Clark, of Berea College, Mayor John Gay, J. W. Stevens, John Dean and Charles Davidson. The delegation from Richmond includes Judge Goodloe, R. E. Turley, who will represent the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, Allen Zaring, Judge J. G. Baxter, and M. C. Kellogg.

This aggregation of splendid business men will leave Richmond Monday morning at seven o'clock.

1922 School Budget as Prepared By Board

The budget for the maintenance of Richmond's city schools for 1922 shows that the City Board of Education figures its needs about $20,000 more money for this year than for 1920. A glance at the figures is eloquent. They show that $4000 is asked for the addition to the colored school. If there is a taxpayer who voted for the school bonds last year who did not understand that the addition to the colored school was to be paid for out of the proceeds of the bond issue, the Daily Register will be glad to print that fact. The sum of $12,000 is also asked for "furnishing and equipping" the new building—another item most everyone expected to be cared for from the bond issue.

The whole city government expense outside of schools is carried on its tax rate of 75c, and has been for several years; in fact since 1917. In 1917 the schools were operating on a 50c tax rate, of which 38 cents were for payment of expenses and 12c for interest and bond payments; in 1919, the school tax of 50 cents was divided: 44 cents for general school expenses and 6 cents for bond interest and sinking fund; in 1920-21, the school tax rate was jumped to 75 cents. School expenses absorbed 72 cents of this and 2 cents went for interest on bonds, etc. Now the demand is for an increase to $1.35 for all school purposes. Here's the school board's budget for 1920 and for this year:—

BAPTISTS COLLECT $37,000,000 SO FAR

Seventeen Southern states and the District of Columbia will be represented.

Among subjects of importance to be considered are these: The proposal to establish a South-wide Baptist hospital at New Orleans.

The proposal to establish two South-wide Baptist universities and an additional theological seminary.

The naming of women to membership on the executive committee and the five general boards of the convention.

Revision of the Constitution and By-Laws of the body.

The conservation commission the Baptist 75 Million Campaign expects to be able to report cash collections in the neighborhood of $37,000,000 on the forward movement projected in 1919, and the completion of the five-year program through the collection of the subscriptions probably will prove one of the outstanding features of the convention.

The Woman's Missionary Union, representing the organized Baptist women of the South, will meet with the convention.

JOHNSON HOLDS REVIVAL IN COURT

On Fine! Day of Term In Clay County After Many Shiners Promise To Quit

Manchester, Ky., May 6—Before pronouncing sentence on six men convicted on charges of ambushing peace officers, Judge Hiram J. Johnson today held devotional services in the Clay county circuit court in which several hundred persons, including 175 school children, participated. The prisoners were among the 1,500 persons indicted in the clean-up campaign on charges ranging from "pistol toting" to murder.

After the children had sung several hymns, the Rev. W. A. Gardner, of Louisville, whose prayer in court two weeks ago wrung confessions from 25 moon shiners, and the Rev. Grace Wilson, formerly of Detroit, conducted a prayer service. The six men pleaded guilty and were sentenced to four years in the state reformatory, following information given by the wives of two of them when Judge Johnson made them understand that his efforts to clean up the district, if successful, would result in better homes and better opportunity for their children.

When Judge Johnson sentenced the six men he told them that they would take "either Christ or the devil to prison with them and that they could return better or worse men."

When the court called for volunteers to protect the wives and children of the prisoners during the four years absence, 350 men stood up and promised to assist. Included among the men who stood up and promised to assist, arrested several weeks ago when Judge Johnson issued warrants for practically the entire adult population of Mill Creek.

The exercises today closed the term of the court during which Judge Johnson directed a sweeping investigation of an alleged plot in the Mill Creek section of Clay Hole to obstruct the courts by preventing arrests of Mill Creek residents, even if it was necessary to kill officers to do so.

The questioning of many residents including officers, resulted in the returning of 1,500 indictments, most of them charging moonshining, bootlegging, drunk eness or pistol toting.

The trial of the six men sets a record for Clay county, as the crime was committed and the men indicted, tried and sentenced during a short term of court. Two other members of the alleged gang will be tried at next term of court.

Judge Johnson invited every citizen of Manchester and Clay county to attend the closing day of court and the courtroom was crowded. School was dismissed that the school children might attend, and they marched to the court house with their teachers.

Tears filled the eyes of the prisoners and members of their families and spectators in the courtroom as the ministers prayed for the offenders and gave thanks for work the court has accomplished "in making this a better community in which to rear children," and many of them joined with the school children in singing hymns.

The men who were sentenced today are Frank, Joe, William and Ed Smith, and Jim Grubbs, Homer Grubbs and McKinley Jones are to be tried next term.

The men are supposed to have been members of a party which fired on officers, wounding Deputy Sheriff Stivers, Hursey and the mounts of two other men were killed as bullets whizzed about the ears of the possemen.

The slaying of John Taylor, a witness in a lawsuit that was expected to be tried this term, resulted in the indictment of Louis Moorewood and Merkle Smith, both of whom are held under bond for trial at the next term of court.

Give the Lazy Man His Due

Perhaps the world has not given the lazy man the credit he deserves for the progress that has been made toward the ideal life. While the lazy man is considered dispassionately, it is seen that some important inventions are the result of his disinclination to work.

For example, there is the riding cultivator, which is said to be the product of the ingenuity of a man who was sure that his legs were never intended to drag after a hand implement. Not only does the farmer ride in cultivating now, but he gets much more cultivating done.

There is not much to be said for the man who refuses to do anything at all, but the man who is just lazy enough to do his work in the easiest way has been able to hit upon many ideas that have added to the sum total of human efficiency.

Many devices that have contributed largely to production may be traced to the desire of some individual to save himself from unnecessary physical effort. Many an inventor who has a reputation for industry may have had only a commendable kind of laziness.

WM. ALLEN WHITE TELLS YOUTH TO LAUGH

(By Associated Press)

Lawrence, Kan., May 5—In his speech at the All-University convocation here today, William Allen White, editor of the Emporia Gazette, urged the students "not to accept the order that is."

"The one blessed privilege of youth is to change things. The one virtue of youth is a passion for change. Nothing is as wicked as a conservative youth," said Mr. White. "When you get older conservatism may be forced upon you by the logic of events. The inexorable grind of life may pile down your enthusiasm for a better world, but your first object in life should be to make this world a better world, and in order to make this world a better world you must instill into your heart's blood the belief that this is not the best possible world. It is, as a matter of fact, a fairly good world, but it is only good because youth like you a generation ago decided it was a bad world, and should be made better, and it will be a bad world in a settler generation, unless youth, like you, with all the vigor and vision and enthusiasm of youth look upon the faults of this world, and set out to make it better."

"The first thing an engineer should do who would improve our civilization is to drench it with laughter. Laugh at it and see what parts melt, as mere mud shams under ridicule. The play of hooping and jeering will not erumble the stone or iron or cement; but the putty and pain and plaster will go. Instinctively youth approaching every civilization in which it must live derides it. The rillid laughter of youth is the only thing that will break down the false construction and monstrous pretense that the past often sets up as institutions under which men are supposed to live. Laughter is not constructive; but, being one of the precious gifts of the high gods, laughter is revealing. Let youth laugh as it will and the world need fear no decay. Only where mirth is checked, where ribaldry is suppressed, does decay hasten to break down civilization. When the haw-haw crop languishes, then the jungle creeps in. So go to it, boys and girls. Laugh at this thing we have builded here. Our best blood is in it. We have toiled and moiled to get the old thing up and going. It looks solid, and we old chaps are vastly proud of it. But what do we know? What does any generation know of its own work? Laugh—blast your eyes—laugh while we grit our teeth and glare at you, and so go off stage cursing you. But, lads, reverence for what we have done is the awful menace to the structure before you. It will not withstand your laughter, it will not hold up for all our prayers. "You may fire when you are ready, Gridley."

Speaker is runner up with .424. The average includes games of Wednesday.

Kenneth Williams, who promises to be Babe Ruth's rival in home run hitting this season, struck a snag in batting, dropping into fifth place. He continues to crash out homers, however, having connected with 9. A week ago Williams shared the batting leadership with Speaker.

Other leading batters for ten or more games: Elmer Smith, Boston, .392; Witt, New York, .395; Williams, St. Louis, .388; Janieson, Cleveland, .382; Pratt, Boston, .362; Blue, Detroit, .361; O'Neil, Cleveland, .360.

George Kelly, first baseman with the Giants, continues to set the pace for the National League batters. He has a mark of .448. Kelly knocked out a brace of circuit drives within the last week but Rogers Hornsby and Ansmith of the Cardinals, each poled out three round trip blows and are making the home run race hot for the Giant slugger. This pair is on Kelly's heels with four each. Hornsby has been belting the ball with great regularity and as a result boosted his mark from .369 a week ago to .404. Bob O'Farrell, the steady catcher with the Chicago Cubs, is the runner up to Kelly with an average of .428.

Maranville, of Pittsburgh, continues to set the pace for base stealers with five thefts, while Bancroft, of the Giants, is the leading run getter with 19 tallies.

Other leading batters for ten or more games: Maranville, Pittsburgh, .414; Earl Smith, New York, .406; Hornsby, St. Louis, .404; Walker, Philadelphia, .400; Reuther, Brooklyn, .400; Powell, Boston, .393; Tierrell, Pittsburgh, .378; Harper, Cincinnati, .376.

With an average of .466 King Lear, second baseman with the Milwaukee club, is the new batting leader of the American Association. Lear was tenth in a list of a week ago, with an average of .385. The figures include games of Wednesday.

Reb Russell, of Minneapolis, is out in front in home run hitting with a total of five, with Krueger, of Indianapolis, and Lamar, of Toledo, pressing him with four each. Mathews, of Milwaukee, and Christensen, of St. Paul are the leaders in stolen bases with four each.

At the Movies

"OVER THE HILL" Showing at the Local Theatres Wednesday and Thursday, May 10 and 11.

"The Notorious Miss Lisle" Which comes to local theatres Saturday, starring Katherine MacDonal, is an accurate picture of the widely read novel by Mrs. Bailee Reynolds, describing the romantic adventure of Gaenor Lisle, who leaves England to avoid the necessity of a big society scandal. In France Gaenor meets Peter Garston, a tourist who knows nothing of her affair and falls in love with her. On their honeymoon in Paris, Gaenor meets a friend who tells him the story of his wife's past. There follows an exciting trip across the English Channel and a gripping climax.

"What No Man Knows"

While filming Clara Kimball Young's latest photodrama in Los Angeles it was necessary to have about 30 or 40 little girls in some of the scenes. Accordingly a classified ad was inserted in a local newspaper asking for little girls—more than 500 applicants came and Miss Young was as sad as many of the youngsters who were disappointed because they couldn't be used in the film. Miss Young enjoys unbounded popularity with the children of Los Angeles for her charm has endeared her to all. At local theatres Monday.

Happy Occasion

A very delightful occasion took place at the home of Mr. William Royston near Paint Lick in honor of the 75th birthday of that gentleman. No man in that section has more friends than Mr. Royston and all will be glad to know he is still enjoying good health, even though past his allotment of three score and ten. His honor guests for the day were two boyhood friends, J. G. Burnside and J. N. Denny. Other guests included Rev. W. A. Ramsey, Mrs. W. M. Eldridge, Mrs. T. R. Slavin, Mrs. E. L. Woods, and Mrs. J. G. Burnside. Mr. Royston's daughter, Miss Hal Royston, did the honors and did it in a way that none but she could have done. Her table fairly groaned with good things to eat, and the birthday cake with its 75 candles, was gorgeous in beauty and most delicious.

Mr. Royston holds the distinction of living on the farm on which he was raised and within a few hundred yards of the house where he was born. His friends throughout the county extend best wishes and hope for him many more years of health and happiness.

BIG VODVIL ACT MONDAY AND TUESDAY

The greatest illusion ever presented to the world is coming to the opera house Monday and Tuesday in addition to the regular feature program of pictures. The management has secured for two nights' showing the great illusion act "Sawing a Woman in Two" which has caused much comment by skeptics throughout the world. You no doubt have heard of this marvelous and sensational act, as it appeared in Lexington for a week at Ben Ali theatre a few months ago. It also proved a sensation in Cincinnati when it played the Palace and Lyric theatres.

Millions of people all over the country have witnessed the mystifying exhibition of this interesting illusion and none have ever deemed it possible to solve the mystery. Right before your eyes you see a fair lady cut in half with a saw, then pulled apart in the presence of the audience. Anyone is permitted to come upon the stage and witness the exhibition and assist in sawing the woman in two.

This act is without a doubt the most mystifying illusion ever presented and we suggest you do not miss it. By special arrangements Miss Ward has secured the act for this city without raising the price of admission. The biggest crowd in the history of the local theatres is expected to turn out for this mystifying vaudeville act, as it is the most talked of sensation on the American stage today.

BEND

We often hear the remark that the young people of today are not like they were 50 years ago. This is true. The training is different, the population has more than doubled in numbers. The boys and girls were brought up under strict discipline; they were made to attend church at least once a month; they were made to be in at an early hour of evenings. They remained with parents until 21 years old when they married or left home. This training was so well founded and instilled into their children by their parents as they had been taught. There are so many attractions so different from the good old days, picture shows, baseball, etc. It is no uncommon thing to see a baseball game on Sunday within a short distance of church and young folks and some of the older ones taking part instead of being at church, both in progress at the same time, thus getting away from old time customs. Large crowds go to the bathing resorts on Sunday—both men and women coming from far and near. If it had been proclaimed that there was to be church at this particular place there would not be one-tenth of the crowd present. Another thing, we believe, is the most detrimental to the young people and especially those of tender age, is the smoking of cigarettes. Go into a crowd in town or country and see the number of boys smoking cigarettes. The things mentioned all go hand in hand, one brings on the other. We hear the good old elders of the church saying these things ought to be checked. They were allowed to get into the church little at a time until it has gone to such an extent it is impossible to check them. These good elders have a big proposition before them and one that will require the best heads to work out a plan by which it can be checked. It has been said there is a time for all things, but it is possible the smoking of cigarettes was unknown then. We believe this one thing is doing more harm to the rising generation than any other one thing at the present, bootlegging not considered.

Three persons have been fined in Chicago for golfing on Sunday.

COLORED COLUMN

(W. B. Chenault) Rev. E. Coleman, Jr., pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. church, has just returned from Louisville in attendance of Historical and Literary Congress given in honor of the 30th anniversary of the marriage of Bishop A. J. Carey and wife. Rev. He reports that the Historical and Literary Congress was quite a success.

Mrs. Mary Allen, of New York City, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Duncan, on B street.

Rev. Richard Thurman, of Stanford, spent the week-end with W. B. Chenault and family on Linden avenue.

Mrs. Silkirt who has been in Chicago for some time, has returned home after pleasant stay.

Mrs. Doe and daughter, Anna Mae, are guests of Mrs. Doe's mother, Mrs. Hayden Estill, on B street.

Mrs. Madie Bryant is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Silkirt, on East Main street.

Mr. Dan Phelps is still on the sick list.

Rev. G. B. Miller is improving nicely at his home on Elm street.

Miss Fannie Jones was hostess to the Modern Priscilla Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Parrish avenue.

Dr. C. O. Henry, our popular dentist, is in Hazard this week.

Dinner for the Board of Education May 3, prepared by the 10th grade, assisted by Domestic Science Teacher, Miss C. L. Masterson, consisted of the following menu: Salpican of fruit in orange baskets, spring chicken, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, cream potatoes, perfection salad, jelly, sweet pickle, ice cream, Lady Baltimore cake, pink and white mint, coffee.

Louisville, Ky., May 6—Dr. James Bond, director of Interracial work in Kentucky, reports that through the agency of the movement and the State Young Men's Christian Association, Negro National Health Week was observed in seventy counties in Kentucky this year. In some counties the full scheduled program of special observance for each day was carried out, while in other counties only a part of the program was used. With the assistance of C. L. Harris, State Y. M. C. A. secretary for colored work, Dr. Bond reports that 18 health conferences were held in different sections of the state. Health exhibits, health films and motion picture shows featuring the fly, the "Health Crusaders" and other films furnished by the State Board of Health were used in connection with the programs. Lectures were given in a large number of communities, special attention being given to school house meetings. The report urges the great need of a colored country nurse and a colored country doctor on county boards of health. It is estimated that fully 60,000 persons were reached in the observance of the week.

BIG VODVIL ACT MONDAY AND TUESDAY

The greatest illusion ever presented to the world is coming to the opera house Monday and Tuesday in addition to the regular feature program of pictures. The management has secured for two nights' showing the great illusion act "Sawing a Woman in Two" which has caused much comment by skeptics throughout the world. You no doubt have heard of this marvelous and sensational act, as it appeared in Lexington for a week at Ben Ali theatre a few months ago. It also proved a sensation in Cincinnati when it played the Palace and Lyric theatres.

Millions of people all over the country have witnessed the mystifying exhibition of this interesting illusion and none have ever deemed it possible to solve the mystery. Right before your eyes you see a fair lady cut in half with a saw, then pulled apart in the presence of the audience. Anyone is permitted to come upon the stage and witness the exhibition and assist in sawing the woman in two.

This act is without a doubt the most mystifying illusion ever presented and we suggest you do not miss it. By special arrangements Miss Ward has secured the act for this city without raising the price of admission. The biggest crowd in the history of the local theatres is expected to turn out for this mystifying vaudeville act, as it is the most talked of sensation on the American stage today.

BEND

We often hear the remark that the young people of today are not like they were 50 years ago. This is true. The training is different, the population has more than doubled in numbers. The boys and girls were brought up under strict discipline; they were made to attend church at least once a month; they were made to be in at an early hour of evenings. They remained with parents until 21 years old when they married or left home. This training was so well founded and instilled into their children by their parents as they had been taught. There are so many attractions so different from the good old days, picture shows, baseball, etc. It is no uncommon thing to see a baseball game on Sunday within a short distance of church and young folks and some of the older ones taking part instead of being at church, both in progress at the same time, thus getting away from old time customs. Large crowds go to the bathing resorts on Sunday—both men and women coming from far and near. If it had been proclaimed that there was to be church at this particular place there would not be one-tenth of the crowd present. Another thing, we believe, is the most detrimental to the young people and especially those of tender age, is the smoking of cigarettes. Go into a crowd in town or country and see the number of boys smoking cigarettes. The things mentioned all go hand in hand, one brings on the other. We hear the good old elders of the church saying these things ought to be checked. They were allowed to get into the church little at a time until it has gone to such an extent it is impossible to check them. These good elders have a big proposition before them and one that will require the best heads to work out a plan by which it can be checked. It has been said there is a time for all things, but it is possible the smoking of cigarettes was unknown then. We believe this one thing is doing more harm to the rising generation than any other one thing at the present, bootlegging not considered.

Three persons have been fined in Chicago for golfing on Sunday.

Louisville, Ky., May 6—Dr. James Bond, director of Interracial work in Kentucky, reports that through the agency of the movement and the State Young Men's Christian Association, Negro National Health Week was observed in seventy counties in Kentucky this year. In some counties the full scheduled program of special observance for each day was carried out, while in other counties only a part of the program was used. With the assistance of C. L. Harris, State Y. M. C. A. secretary for colored work, Dr. Bond reports that 18 health conferences were held in different sections of the state. Health exhibits, health films and motion picture shows featuring the fly, the "Health Crusaders" and other films furnished by the State Board of Health were used in connection with the programs. Lectures were given in a large number of communities, special attention being given to school house meetings. The report urges the great need of a colored country nurse and a colored country doctor on county boards of health. It is estimated that fully 60,000 persons were reached in the observance of the week.
